

North Carolina Sets Pass Score for NextGen UBE

The North Carolina Board of Law Examiners has previously announced its adoption of the NextGen Uniform Bar Examination (UBE), with the first administration to be in July 2028. North Carolina will begin accepting NextGen UBE Transfer scores beginning with the NextGen UBE initial launch in July 2026.

The North Carolina Board of Law Examiners has set the NextGen UBE passing score at 620 on the new 500-750 scale. This passing score of 620 corresponds to North Carolina's 270 passing score on the current Uniform Bar Examination.